SOFTWARE ENGINEERING

Give Today

Now more than ever, support from alumni, friends and corporate partners is critical for ensuring continued excellence in the UA College of Engineering. Generous contributions not only support student scholarships, but also they fund important programs and help the department attract and retain prominent faculty.

To make a donation, visit the UA Foundation's _____, or see the College of Engineering's _____.

We respectfully acknowledge the University of Arizona is on the land and territories of Indigenous peoples. Today, Arizona is home to 22 federally recognized tribes, with Tucson being home to the O'odham and the Yaqui. Committed to diversity and inclusion, the University strives to build sustainable relationships with sovereign Native Nations and Indigenous communities through education offerings, partnerships, and community service.
